

License to Publish

I. Requirement of Acceptance:

The following Grant of License (“License”) must be signed and returned to the American Association for the Advancement of Science (“AAAS”) before a manuscript can be accepted for publication in the online, Open Access journal Science Advances.

By signing this License, you represent and warrant that you have the authority and all necessary rights to execute this License. For example, if your institution places limitations on publishing agreements or asserts its own right to distribute or provide access to the works of its faculty, you must obtain a waiver from your institution that releases you from such restrictions so that you can sign this License. After publication of your manuscript by AAAS, your institution may exercise all rights to use the Work as are retained by Authors in section III of this License.

If the copyright in the contribution is owned by your employer, your employer or an authorized representative must sign this form.

Should AAAS decide not to publish your manuscript, upon notification to you that AAAS will not publish your manuscript, this License shall be null and void. AAAS retains complete discretion as to whether to publish any manuscript, and in what form.

II. Rights of Publication

In consideration of publication by AAAS in Science Advances of the manuscript currently titled _____ (the “Work”) and authored by _____ (“You”),

You hereby grant to AAAS the sole and exclusive, irrevocable right to publish, reproduce, distribute, transmit, display, store, translate, create derivative works from and otherwise use the Work, for any purpose, including commercial purpose, in any form, manner, format, or medium, whether now known or hereafter developed, throughout the world and in any language, for the entire duration of any such right and any renewal or extension thereof and to permit/sublicense others to do any or all of the foregoing as well.

With regard to associated supplemental materials, data, audio and/or video files that you have submitted for publication with your manuscript, you hereby grant to AAAS the non-exclusive right to publish, reproduce, distribute, transmit, display, store, translate, create derivative works from and otherwise use these supplemental materials in any form, manner, format, or medium, whether now known or hereafter developed, throughout the world and in any language, for the entire duration of any such right and any renewal or extension thereof and to permit/sublicense others to do any or all of the foregoing as well.

You retain copyright, subject to the rights you grant to AAAS above, and all rights not expressly granted in this Agreement. No rights in patents or trademarks or other intellectual property rights are transferred to AAAS in this License.

You also authorize AAAS, but AAAS undertakes no obligation to, at its own expense, enforce the rights granted under this license on your behalf against third parties whom AAAS believes to be infringing the copyright in the Work.

III. User Access and Rights

AAAS will make the final published version of the Work freely accessible online without barriers or embargo. Upon publication, AAAS will also submit the final published version of the Work to PMC/UKPMC for immediate release.

AAAS shall publish the work under the Creative Commons License selected by the Contributing Author during the submission process. Use of the published version of the Work by yourself and others shall be subject to the terms of the Creative Commons License that is selected. Science Advances offers the following options:

1) Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International Public License (CC BY): This license allows users to copy, redistribute, remix, transform, and build upon the Work, in any format or medium, for any purpose including commercial purpose, on a perpetual basis provided they credit the Work and the authors. Users must explain any changes that were made from the original and may not suggest the authors endorse the use. The resultant work must be made available under the same terms, and must include a link to the CC BY 4.0 International License.

The full legal code of the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International Public License may be found at <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/legalcode>

2) Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial 4.0 International Public License CC BY-NC): This license allows users to copy, redistribute, remix, transform, and build upon the Work in any format or medium, but only for non-commercial purposes and not for commercial advantage or monetary compensation. These rights are granted on a perpetual basis although users must credit the Work and the authors. Users must explain any changes that were made from the original and may not suggest the authors endorse the use. The resultant work must include a link to the CC BY-NC 4.0 International Public License.

The full legal code of the Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial 4.0 International Public License may be found at <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc/4.0/legalcode>.

IV. Author Rights

1) If you elected to publish the Work under the CC BY license: After publication of the Work by AAAS, you and your co-authors may make all uses of the article permitted by the CC BY license, subject to all conditions of that license.

2) If you elected to publish the Work under the CC BY-NC license: After publication of the Work by AAAS, you and your co-authors may make all uses of the article permitted by the CC BY-NC license (subject to all conditions of that license), plus the following commercial uses:

i. Use the work or a portion of the work as part of a larger work that you create (e.g. use figures in new journal articles or book chapters, use excerpts in new articles, book chapters, blog posts, use the entire work in a collection of your work), under the following conditions:

- credit must be given to its first publication in the appropriate volume of Science Advances;
- the author of the larger work must be the same author of the Work published hereunder;
- republication of the Work or any substantially similar version of the Work in another journal is not permitted.

ii. Use and permit others to use the Supplemental Materials for any purpose provided credit is given to its first publication in the appropriate issue of Science Advances.

V. Additional Author Representations

You warrant and represent that:

- the Work is original
- all the facts contained therein are true and accurate
- the Work does not contain any libelous statements
- the Work has not been published elsewhere
- the Work does not infringe upon any copyright, proprietary, or personal right of any third party.

You agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless AAAS against any claims in respect of the warranties above.

IMPORTANT: If the Work contains any material that is owned or controlled by a third party, You must obtain permission for its use and submit written evidence of that permission to your Editor and you must clearly acknowledge the source and copyright holder of that material within the text of the Work.

By signing this agreement, You warrant that you have the full power to enter into this agreement. This agreement shall remain in effect throughout the term of copyright in the Work and may not be revoked without the express written consent of both parties. This Agreement shall be governed and construed, and any dispute arising hereunder resolved, in accordance with the laws of the District of Columbia, United States of America, without resort to the conflicts of laws principles thereof.
